*Whenever
you come
to the human race
there are
layers and layers
of nonsense*

*Better
that they had never been born
who
read to doubt
or read to scorn.*

*A fool
and his money
are saloon parted.*

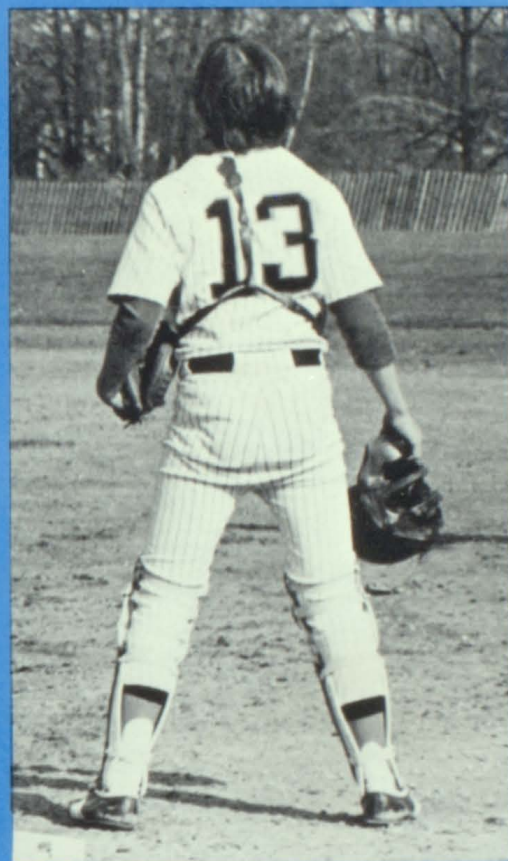

*Smile
it keeps people
wondering
what you've been up to.*

*Anger, folly, falsehood,
flattery and treachery
get you everywhere.*

*Today is the tomorrow
that you
worried about yesterday.
You
had good reason
to worry*

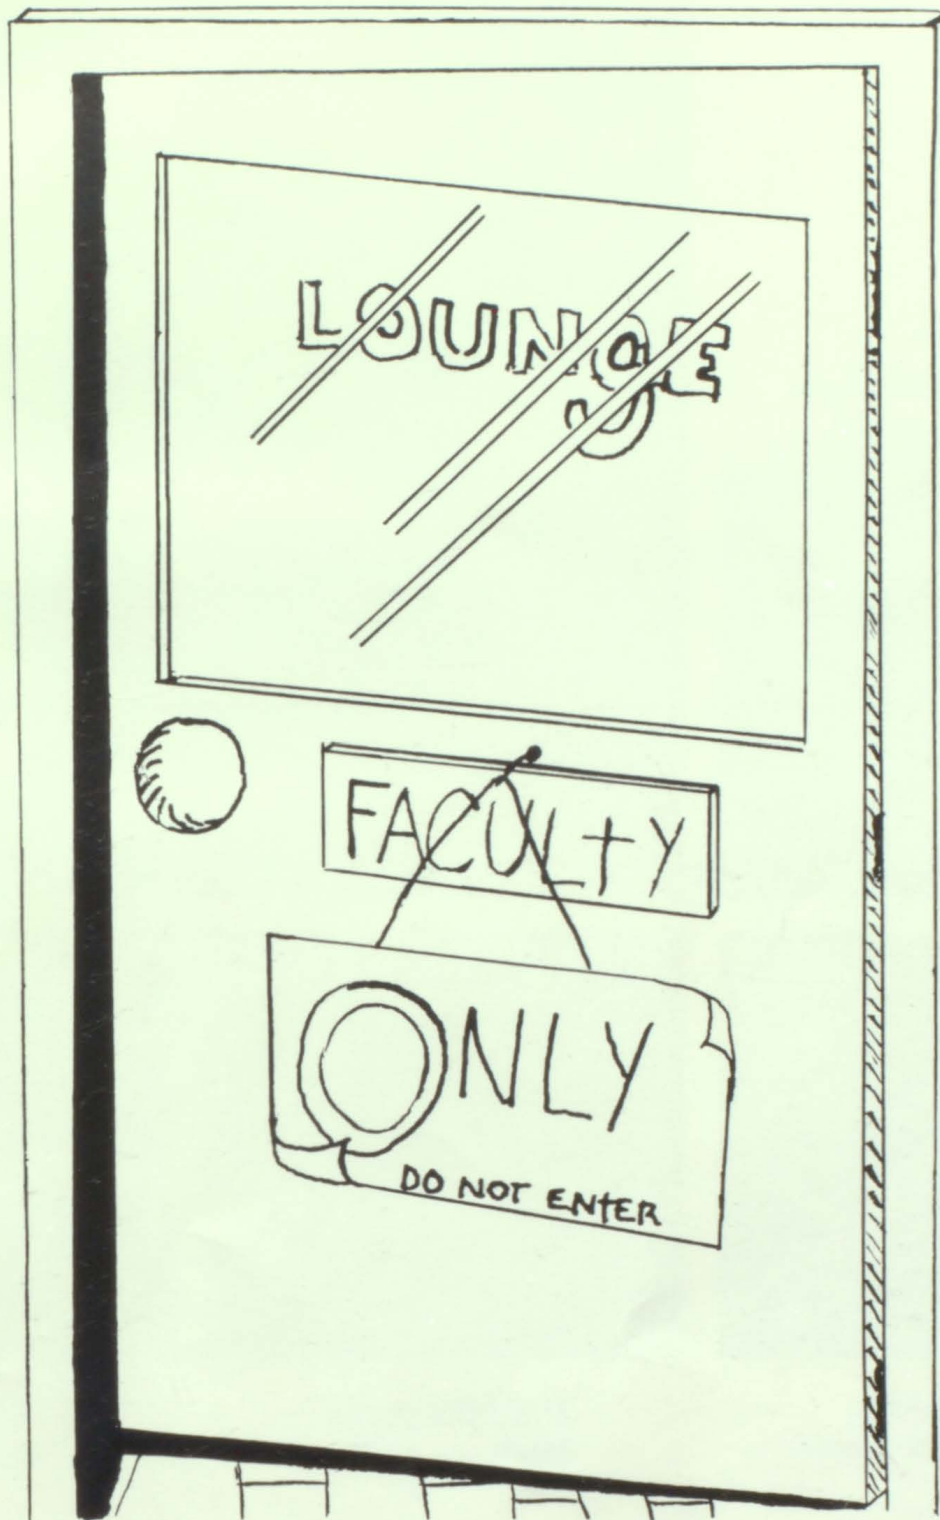

*We regret
the end
of the moment.
Could
it
not always be like this?*

Don't let it slip away, grasp it, hold it, make it stay.

Mr. Edward J. Stoddard

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1975:

In a very real sense, this year has provided many "moments to remember". As we had discussed at your first class meeting last fall, your senior year would prove to be the one that you will remember for the remainder of your life. To date, there have been an increasing number of events which I feel are indications that your year is progressing well. On a day-by-day basis, I see continued growth on the part of each and every one of you. I trust that this growth will continue, and that in the years ahead you can look back and cherish the memories of your years at Chester.

Needless to say, I do not feel that I know each of you as well as I would like to know you. At the same time, I feel that a good relationship has been established as we attempted to work together throughout the days.

As you are about to leave the secondary school environment, I can only ask that you continue to strive to do your very best in whatever you select for your future career. We have high expectations for you as individuals and I know you will prove to be outstanding members of society. Your efforts will span not only the twentieth century, but you will be the people influencing the twenty-first century.

My best personal regards to you. Please call upon me if I can ever be of assistance in the future.

Sincerely,

Edw. J. Stoddard

Mr. Donald Dillenbeck
Guidance Counselor

KATHLEEN SIMMONS

And indeed there will be time For the yellow smoke that slides along the street, Rubbing its back upon the window panes; There will be a time, there will be time To prepare a face to meet the faces you meet; There will be time to murder and create,
And time for all the works and days of hands That lift and drop a question on your plate; Time for you and time for me, And time yet for a hundred indecisions, And for a hundred visions and revisions, Before the taking of a toast and tea. And indeed there will be a time To wonder "Do I dare?" and "Do I dare?"

THE CLASS OF 1975

*And now we come to an end—
Of a book, a year, and more important,
Of a way of life.
Some will continue in a similar path,
Others will pursue new paths.
But for all, it has been an experience
From which we have learned and will grow.*
